

Odd dream 8/1/94 night

(Background - Lectured to INSA symposium Pre-emptive problem night before (anxiety) had to go to the Ice Centre for dinner - left early ————— Ave Kitchison was snowing loudly).

Dreamt that :- I started my talk in a dimly lit room unprepared.
As the lecture progressed I became incoherent. I began to dze off.
At some point everyone was asleep - I slowly slipped into one of the seats and closed my eyes - Everyone was asleep - It would be awful I thought if they awake and found everybody was sleeping.
To my horror, I found that the man in the next seat

was sitting upright and awake.
I woke up to find I was nearly sleeping.

Disturbing dreams (now forgotten)
kept recurring.

Cannot recall.

(Noted in the morning).
